Then taking the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he said the blessing over them, broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the crowd. They all ate and were satisfied. And when the leftover fragments were picked up, they filled twelve wicker baskets. - Lk 9:16-17

Corpus Christi

Jesus went to those most in need. He forgave the sinner, ate with the outcast, defended, and fed those who were poor and hungry. He worked for true justice, risked being unpopular, willingly accepted suffering and death, and always stayed connected with his Abba, Father. Jesus also consistently reminded folks that God's compassion, love, and mercy trump everything, even the law. This is the Christ that the Eucharist calls us to be. As we look around our churches, our towns and cities, and our world, there are many people who need to see the face and body of Christ. Some of those most in need may be right within our families. But it is always in the poorest of the poor and those most vulnerable that we find the greatest need. There are many who cannot function on their own. When the gift of the Eucharistic Christ takes root in our hearts, we can more readily see the face of Christ in others. Many people are vulnerable. Highest on that list are the homeless. They show us the face of Christ. Whatever the cause, to have no place to go and no place to call home takes a toll on the human spirit. For Jesus when there were hungry people, they were fed. God asks us to do the same. There are many who are hungry physically, emotionally, and spiritually. Gifted by the Eucharistic presence of Christ, we can bring them Christ. Who are the hungry around us and how can we feed them? When someone is hurting, you comfort them. When someone is hungry, you feed them. When someone needs clothes, you provide them. When someone is cold, you warm them. When someone is in prison, you visit them. With over a million people who are homeless and over a quarter of them children, it is important to ask the question, "why?" and strategize for ways to lessen or alleviate the problem. Nevertheless, we are not off the hook for responding to the immediate needs that present themselves at our doors. Whether a person's current station in life is self-imposed or the result of being victimized, they are sacred vessels. We cannot lock the door and send them away and still believe we bear the Eucharistic presence of Christ. It doesn't work like that.

Thank you from the Squires!

On behalf of the Columbian Squires, I would like to take this time to thank you for supporting our car wash fundraiser. Because of your eager participation, the fundraiser was a success! I would also like to thank you for supporting us in all of our events throughout the year. Every little bit certainly helps! Thank you to Fr. John and Fr. Brian for consistently supporting the young people of our parish. May the grace of the Lord be with you all!

Yours in Christ, Matthew McGee, Chief Squire

St. Therese's Prayer for Priests

Let's not forget our Spiritual Fathers this Father's Day!

O Jesus, keep them all close to your heart.

O Jesus, I pray for your faithful and fervent priests;
for your unfaithful and tepid priests;
for your priests labouring at home or abroad in distant mission fields;

for your tempted priests;

for your lonely and desolate priests;

for your young priests;

for your dying priests;

for the souls of your priests in Purgatory.

But above all, I recommend the priests dearest to you to me: the priest who baptized me;

the priests who've absolved me from my sins;

the priests at whose Masses I've assisted and who've given me Your Body and Blood in Holy Communion;

the priests who've taught and instructed me;

all the priests to whom I am indebted in any other way, especially Fr. John And Fr Brian.

O Jesus, keep them all close to your heart,

and bless them abundantly in time and in eternity.
Amen.

"Happy Father's Day, Father! We are praying for you!"

To all the father figures of the children in this parish. You have guided your children along the way in their lives. Your children look up to you. You are their role model, and they try to be like you. Thank you for being there for all of us. We pray for all fathers, grandfathers, step-fathers, future fathers and other father figures.

Gracious God,
Bless fathers and all father figures with such love and faithfulness that children flourish and grow in uprightness and joy.

Bless those who long to be fathers and those for whom this day is difficult.

Amen

- Christopher Cross

God Bless all Fathers!
