And another said, "I will follow you, Lord, but first let me say farewell to my family at home." To him Jesus said, "No one who sets a hand to the plow and looks to what was left behind is fit for the kingdom of God."

13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

And to another he said, "Follow me." In every moment of every day, in every circumstance and experience, God is calling us. We can easily get distracted and not hear it or simply ignore it, pretending it wasn't even heard. When we do hear it and favorably respond, there are some conditions that must be met. Jesus makes it clear that once we say yes to his invitation, we must stay focused and forge ahead. We cannot keep looking behind or worry about unfinished business. There are some tasks, and discipleship is one, that require our full devotion. There are many "masters" vying for our attention. We need something or someone to give us direction. Human nature requires it. Our motives and actions reveal what has our allegiance. It is tempting to give ourselves to masters that lure us with intriguing promises. When given the choice between a "master" that promises worldly success, abundant wealth, status, privilege, and security versus a "master" that asks for self-sacrifice, hardship, suffering, ridicule, and death, to whom do we go? While the promise of immediate pleasure is enticing, there is always a catch. For all that secular masters can promise, they always keep us looking behind, checking on ourselves, second guessing choices, calculating options, and being slaves to excessive worry. Our guard can never come down. Only one master really promises life: Jesus Christ. Hearing his call, we either trust him or we don't. Saying yes to following Christ does come with a risk. But it also comes with the brightness of future hopes and dreams. There is no need to keep looking behind. Sins are forgiven and regrets serve no effective purpose. God is not there. He's moved beyond all that stuff. God is in the today and the tomorrow and what he can continually do with our daily affirmation to follow Him. All we need to do is be obedient. St. Gianna Molla is credited with saying, "The stillness of prayer is the most essential condition for fruitful action. Before all else, the disciple kneels down." Begin with prayer. We will not only hear God's call but find the courage to trust that He will guide us where we need to be. God uses us in the most ordinary of ways through the simple daily expression of our lives.

Squires Message

We celebrate Canada day on July 1st and as you're thinking about it, why not take the time to read some information about Canada day. Canada, as you might know, started as a French colony, but after France lost Canada to Britain in 1763, it became a British colony, and on July 1st, 1867, became a dominion which meant it was self-governed, but its foreign policy was controlled in London, and Canada was fully independent in 1982. Canada has had many Prime Ministers; in total, 23 different persons; the first was Sir John Alexander Macdonald, and the most recent is Justin Trudeau. The flag of Canada you know and love today wasn't Canada's flag for 98 of the years Canada existed; considering that Canada is 155 years old, that's the majority of its lifetime. The old flag was changed on January 28th, 1965 but inaugurated on January 15th, 1965.

"He shall have dominion also from sea to sea and from the River to the ends of the earth." (Psalms 72:8)
Canada owes its catholic faith to the French who brought Catholicism, the French who founded Canada and the immigrants who continued to contribute their various catholic cultures to Canada.

On behalf of the Squires Circle, Canada day, July 1st, is the day to celebrate and be proud of!

Wishing you a happy Canada Day!

God Bless, Frederic Markic, Bursar Squire

Father John, Father Brian, Fellow Squires, Counsellors and Parishioners...

Canada Day is a day to honour and take pride in Canada. Canada Day reminds us that it is a privilege to have freedom as many countries are in constant turmoil. Canada enjoys beautiful landscapes, witnessing diverse cultures and meeting unwaveringly polite people.

Canada day is a time to come together and gather with friends and family to celebrate the glorious gift of Canada as a church community.

"Canadian pride may not rest on our sleeves, but it resides deeply in our hearts."

Let me wish you all a blessed and happy Canada Day, my friends and compatriots!

- Nicholas Van Der Ham, Deputy Chief Squire
