13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me."

- Matthew 10:37-38

I still remember the first homily I ever preached as a new deacon. Standing before more than 200 classmates and professors, I stumbled awkwardly through my words and realized how strange — almost insane — this teaching sounded. If anyone else said it, we would call it narcissistic or cultish.

And that is the point. I felt the weight of those words in my own heart then, as I still do today. Am I willing to live as though Christ's claim on my love is absolute? Are you?

Over the years, I've learned that the more I do, the more everything else makes sense. Family, friendships, vocation, even my very self: all of it falls into place when my love for Jesus comes first.

That is why he dares to speak this way. Our Lord is not a cult leader hungry for control. He is the Son of God, the source of life and love itself. To put him before everything else is not to lose, but to find...everything, and everyone, in him.

This week, name one thing or one person you are tempted to place before the Lord. Then consciously offer it back to him in prayer.

ShareLife

So far, we have raised $154,455.97 for ShareLife. That is 83% of our goal of $185,000.00. Your kindness and support to give are a true reflection of our faith and love for one another. We thank you in advance for your generosity!

Thank you from Fr. John & Fr. Brian

On behalf of Fr. Brian and myself, we would like to thank all of our parishioners for the many years of love, support and prayers you have shared with us.

It has been a privilege and a blessing to be part of your lives, celebrating baptisms and weddings, sharing in your joys, supporting one another through difficult times, and growing together in faith as one parish family. The memories we have made and the kindness you have shown us will remain in our hearts for years to come.

Thank you for welcoming us into your homes, your families, and your lives.

As we begin a new chapter, please know that you will always remain in our prayers, and we ask that you remember us in yours.

"We always thank God for all of you and continually mention you in our prayers."

— 1 Thessalonians 1:2

May God continue to bless each of you and your families, and may He watch over our parish community for many years to come.

Sincerely in the Lord,
Fr. John
