THE LORD'S VINEYARD

"The vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel, and the people of Judah are his cherished plant."

The Lord lovingly planted and cared for his vineyard, expecting it to produce good fruit. Yet, instead of good grapes, it produced wild grapes. This passage invites us to reflect on how we respond to God's care and what kind of fruit our lives are producing.

"He looked for judgment, but see, bloodshed! for justice, but hark, the outcry!"

THE NEW VINEYARD OF GRACE

"The kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people that will produce its fruit."

— Matthew 21:43

Jesus' parable reminds us that we are part of God's vineyard the Church. God lovingly cares for us through Scripture, the Sacraments, and the community of faith. Each of us is called to be a faithful worker in His vineyard.

What fruit is my life producing for God? Through prayer, love, service, and our witness, we are called to help others come closer to Christ.

"May my life bear abundant fruit for Your Kingdom."

Cenacle Holy Hour every Wednesday at 6:00 PM

As the Apostles prayed with Mary in the cenacle of the Upper Room, preparing themselves for the coming of the Holy Spirit, so in the cenacles we pray the rosary with Mary asking through the intercession of her Immaculate Heart for an outpouring of the Holy Spirit. We reflect on her words given to don Gobbi, we pray for our Holy Father and make our consecration to her Immaculate Heart.

"And so, in cenacle with me, you are preparing the second Pentecost which is about to come so that, through the irresistible power of the Spirit of Love, the Church may be healed and the whole world renewed" (M294p).

St. Louis de Montfort in True Devotion to Mary mentioned, that "When the Holy Spirit, her spouse, finds Mary in a soul, he hastens there and enters fully into it. He gives himself generously to that soul according to the place it has given to his spouse. One of the main reasons why the Holy Spirit does not work striking wonders in souls is that he fails to find in them a sufficiently close union with his faithful and inseparable spouse" (36).
