23rd Sunday in Ordinary Times

The Joy of Reconciliation

"If your brother sins against you, go and tell him his fault between you and him alone."

— Matthew 18:15

Jesus calls us to choose reconciliation over resentment, mercy over judgment, and love over division. We all experience hurt, but we also hurt others. Through forgiveness, humility, and honest conversation, broken relationships can be healed. Today, ask yourself: Is there someone I need to forgive? Is there someone from whom I need to ask forgiveness?

"For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them."

— Matthew 18:20

Lord Jesus, help us forgive, seek forgiveness, and bring Your peace and love into every relationship. Amen.

Back to School – Keeping Our Children in Prayer

As our children return to school, let us keep them, their teachers, and school staff in our prayers. May God bless them with wisdom, joy, and a love of learning, protect them each day, and guide them throughout the school year.

"For he will command his angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways."

— Psalm 91:11

May God protect our children, guide their steps, and bless them with a safe, joyful, and successful school year. Amen.
